Premium Group to Support Business Development of Restaurants Amid COVID-19 Pandemic

Name	Premium Group Co., Ltd. (Securities Code: 7199)
Overview	Premium Group's wholly owned subsidiary PAS will, together with Synchro Food, provide a three-month trial offer enabling applicants, who are limited to restaurants, to lease food trucks free of charge.
Details	Under the circumstance in which the restaurant industry is heavily hit by the COVID-19 pandemic, PAS and Synchro Food are supporting new business development of restaurants by providing a package service combining support for opening restaurants, sale of vehicles and leasing/opening locations. The companies will hereby provide a three-month limited-time offer between August 2021 and October 2021 that enables applicants to lease food trucks with cooking counters and refrigeration equipment free of charge. As the service introduces locations to operate the food trucks, even first-time users can try the service with ease of mind. After test-operating a food truck, users can choose to acquire it. After-purchase support in various forms for the food trucks is also available. PAS and Synchro Food will support the restaurant industry that has seen decline during the pandemic by fully displaying the strengths of the two companies, and by opening food trucks in suburban residential complexes and depopulated areas, the companies will contribute to revitalization of the regional economy.
