|------------------|---|
| Name | Premium Group Co., Ltd. (Securities Code: 7199) |
| Overview | Premium Group has renewed its members-only portal site, which features services provided by the company, and expanded content. |
| Details | With the expansion of services provided by Premium Group as well as expansion of its member network of used-car retailers and maintenance factories, the members-only portal site, which had been providing services to mainly Auto Credit member companies, has been renewed to target all member companies using products and services of the group companies. The aim of this is to further enhance convenience. |
| Renewal features | (1) Supporting digital transformation of member companies The portal site can now handle various products and services and conduct online contracting and customer management. Materials can also be downloaded at the site, which will lead to enhancement of convenience as well as promotion of digital transformation of member companies. (2) Enabling one-stop provision of service information and establishing strong relationships of trust As a platform on which the latest information regarding various services related to automobiles provided by the group is posted, the portal site is able to suggest to member companies that use only some of the services available to try group services they have yet to use. This will lead to establishment of a closer relationship with member companies. In addition, the group will provide comprehensive management support to member companies by providing services suitable for the problems of each member company. |
