Premium Group Announces Number of PFS Premium Club Member Automobile Retailers Surpasses 1,000

Name	Premium Group Co., Ltd. (Securities Code: 7199)
Overview	Premium Group's wholly owned subsidiary Premium announced that the number of member retailers for its membership service, PFS Premium Club, which provides helpful services for automobile retailers in operating their businesses, has surpassed 1,000 companies.
Details	PFS Premium Club is a membership organization that provides automobile retailers support in stabilizing their management over the long term in addition to various special services. The organization resolves various issues member retailers encounter through services provided by Premium. On this occasion, the number of members surpassed 1,000 retailers after about one year from the launch of service, and the organization is steadily expanding towards its 2025 target of 3,000 member retailers. In the automobile industry, which is said to be amid a once-in-a-century revolutionary period, the group aims for co-existence and co-prosperity as well as permanent mutual development with member automobile retailers and is striving to realize convenient and safe use of automobiles by end-users through the expansion of this membership service.
